

Candles (LV – 30.4.16)

Candles with a wick one end
How do you burn it right?
To get the brightest light you can
Can you burn it through the night?

With age comes wisdom so they say
Well, still here and waiting it seems
The body ages, that's for sure
But the mind is still naïve.

Remember now, what I could do then
Surely it was only yesterday
The sport, the beer, the late night 'do's'
Party night, and work the day.

Well slap that face and wake right up
It don't work that way no more
Do what you can with what you've got
Just respect and keep to lore.
